Hi Emily,

Attached is an RFO and estimate for your review. This client is in great need of getting this repair done as soon as possible as she has no other transportation available to her and needs to work. Is it possible to review for her today? The mechanic said he can repair today once he receives the go ahead. Also, I won't be in the office tomorrow through the weekend and hate to leave her without transportation for the weekend.

Thank you so much!

Carrie
